MISS REIERSON IS LIEUT. FAY'S BRIDE

Army Officers Assist in Wedding at Christ Church. Bronxville.

WEST POINT CLERGYMAN

Golden - Fallon, Marshallchapin, Taylor-Wilks, Russell-Seymour and Others.

Special Desputch to Tun Sus. MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., March 9.— Prominent society folk and a large num-ber of army officers attended the wed-ding of Miss Lucille Harby Relerson, Saughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Relerson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reierson of Lawrence Park, Bronxville, to Lieut. William Pickman Fay of the 304th U. s Field Artillery this afternoon. The sermony was performed at 5 o'clock at Christ Episcopel Church at Bronxville by the Rev. H. Percy Silver, chaptain at the West Point Military Acad-Illian Lupprian, and the bridgroom's brother. John Disk.

Lieut. Diak is an instructor in bayonet work, jiu jitsu and boxing at Camp Upton. He is a graduate of Columbia University where he held the 129 yard hursile and welterweight boxing titles, was a member of the champion relay team in 1811 and when in Horace Mann School won the fancy diving champion-ship. He also played basketball, footbard of the 304th Field Artillery was best man. The ushers were all army Lieuenants. They were Lieuts. Walter pavis of the British army, Donald E. Gurrier, Townsend Remard, Roger M. Smith, Frederick Gannon and Charles Tyler of the 304th Field Artillery. A reception at the home of the bride's tarnts followed the ceremony.

Lieut. and Mrs. Fay will spend a short honeymoon in the South, after shich they will go to Camp Upton. where Lieut, Fay is aiding in the training of soldiers. The bride has been prominent in society and Red Cross sork in Bronxville, She is a graduate of Smith College, class of 1915.

Following his graduation he served with the American Ambulance in France of the Amousson and saw service at Pont a Mousson and or eighteen months with headquarter at Pont a Mousson and saw service at Verdun. When the United States entered the war Lieut. Fay returned o this country, attended the Officers Paining Camp at Pittsburg and secured a commission as First Lieutenant.

PARSONS-SHAEN.

Graduates of Dartmouth Packer Are United. Mes Ethel Shaen, daughter of Mr. and DIED.

Bulliago - At his home in Nutley, N. J. March 5, 1915, Richard W. Bailard, mass at 9 o'clock, Monday, March

Il Interment at Bonnie Brae Ceme-ter: Baltimore, Md. BOYLE John Francis. Services "THE "UNERAL CHURCH." Broadway and Saturalist street (Frank E. Camp-lell's), Tuesday, 12:30 noon.

BEOWNING.—At Metuchen, N. J., on Fri-

lay, March & Mary Gertrude, wife of the late Oren F. Browning, aged 75 of the Veteran Association. Bartanen, Naval Militia, are re-ted to attend the funeral which he held at the Church of the In-morning, March 12, at 10:20

On February 5, killed in action

DIAZ-LUPPRIAN.

Lieutenant in National Army Weds New Rochelle Girl.

Special Desputch to Tun Sus. New ROCHELLE, Murch 9.—Miss Ella I. Lupprian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lupprian, and Lieut. Julian Lopez Diaz were married at the bride's home, 87 Lockwood avenue, by the Rev. Francis W. Walsh this evening. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Lillian Lupprian, and the bridegroom's brother, John Diaz.

Lieut Diaz is an instruction in house.

The wedding of Miss Millicent Bernice Mabon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Mabon of Flatbush, and Lieut. Rochester Burnett Jones, I'. S. A., took place last evening in St. Bartholomew's Church, Madison avenue and Forty-fourth street, with the Rev. Percy Gordon officiating. American, French and British flags were used in the decorations and in the gowns of the bride's stiendants, the army colors him, and attendants the army colors, blue and gold, were carried out. Lieut. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis P. Jones of 118 East Seventeenth street.

The bride wore a gown of white marquisette embroidered in silver and pearls and a veil of rose point. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas, orchids and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Doris Jones as maid of honor and Miss Imogene Mabon as flower girl. The best man was Frank Almquist and ushers were Gilbert Gabriel, Dr. Alexander Nagel, Ashley Dickluson and Frank Tiebout.

The bride was graduated from Packer in 1916 and Lieut, Jones is a Williams man. The ceremony was fol-

Cochran-VonDaba.

the late Oren P. Browning, aged 15 (1815). Services at the convenience of the family Church, Englewood, N. J., yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Dr. Flemington James officiated. Miss VonDuhn is a granddaughter of Mrs. D. M. Knicker-teslence, 554 Madison avenue, on Finetal services will be held at her late residence, 554 Madison avenue, on Monday March 11, at 2 o'clock. Interment at convenience of family.

ORIELET—March 5. William Lewis fireley, aged 49 years.

Service 3 Stephen Merritt's Harlem Thapel, 304-8 West 125th atreet. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

ENTER—On March 5. Ida Willis, wife Banks was the maid of honor and Capt. M. M. Cochran was the best man.

pulser in 18, at 1 P. M. Interment shade Mr. and Mrs. John W. Willis and Strandsupher of the late North Willis, and Providing Phases of the Noter's passed in the forty-first year of the Same Brookers, while, at 410 P. M. Interment at Allettie North. I. to the Second Product of Same Association, Plant Same and the forty-first year of this same and the forty-first year of the yea

Minor-Copeland.

Mrs. Frank C. Copeland of Lorraine avenue, Montolair, N. J., has announced the marriage of her daughter. Miss Frances Copeland, and Lieut John Bacon Missers I. Satteries. President. Walter S. Newhouse. Secretary. As the plans for the wedding were made hastily, due to war conditions, there has hashand of Emily Contest was brevens, in his sixtieth year will be held at the Church of How Innocents, Sixth atreet and the arenue, Hoboken, N. J. Tues. As the plans for the wedding were man

State of his age, Caporal-Pillot and of his flower in the twenty of his age, Caporal-Pillot and the his Henry Libert John State Wight Talls and State Wigh Miss Frances C. Fallon, daughter of Verdin, France, in the twenty-year of his age. Caporal-Pilote 555 West 148th street, was married to in Hallett, son of the late Henry Lieut, John B. Golden, aviation section, Lieut, John B. Golden, aviation section,

Miss Eleanor Virginia Randolph Chapin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Woodruff Chapin of this city and Wil-ton, Conn., was married to Lieut. Wayne Marshall, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooper Marshall of Philudelphia, in St. Matthew's Church. Wilton. on

Mrs. Harry B. Shaen, and Harold Coville
Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Turner Parsons of Brooklyn and Douglaston, L. I., were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 827,
W. I. Southerton performed the ceremony.
Miss Shaen were a veil of old Carrickmacrons over her gown of white silk net and point applique and carried white orchids and liles of the vailey. She was attended by Miss Erna Benger as maid of honor, Miss Florence Ebling as flower girl, Mrs. Henry M. Barlow, Mrs.
John S. Carlisie, Miss Catharine Cowenhoven and Mrs. Earle T. Munkenbeck,
They were gowns of pink net and taffeta and carried roses. Randolph Lee was best man and the ushers were Earle T.
Munkenbeck and Henry M. Barlow.
The bride was graduated from Packer in 1914 and Mr. Parsons is a graduate of Dartmouth.

Thursday. The wedding, which had been arranged for April, was hastened on account of orders received by the bridegroom, and only relatives and and on present. The offew intimate friends were present. The officiating clergymen were the Rev.
Charles A. Marks and the Rev. George S. Pine. The bride was attended by her sister. Mrs. Richard Pegram Myers, Miss Eleanor Brace of this city and Miss
Eleanor Brace of this city and Miss
Eleanor Brace of this city and Miss
Eleanor Brace of this city and Miss
Eleanor Brace of this city and Miss Eleanor Brace of the salvens of Greenfield.
Mass. Lieut. Henry M. Ladd, Jr., U. S.
A., was best man. The ushers were Bernard Glipin Marshall and Lieuts.
Richard Pegram Myers, U. S. N.; Le Roy Weiling Nichols and John G. Davis of the U. S. A. A reception followed at Drum Hill, the country home of the bride's parents near Wilton.

Payse—Sturdevant.

George Henry Payse. Commissioner of Taxes and Assessments, and Mrs.
Emms James Sturdevant of Dailas, Pa.,
Were married at the bride's home in

George Henry Payne, Commissioner of Taxes and Assessments, and Mrs. Emms James Sturdevant of Dallas, Pa., were married at the bride's home in Dallas yesterday, the Rev. R. S. Haynes officiating. The bride, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Ayrs James, was unattended. Robert Emmet MacAlarney was best man. Mr. Payne was appointed to the commissionership by Mayor Hylan. He has long been active in politics and formerly was a newspaper man.

FRENCH ART FIRM COMES TO NEW YORK

Demotte Opens Imposing Gal-·leries in East Fiftyseventh Street.

most eminent artists resident abroad were compelled to return to their native, heath; nor that all the unattached European artists who had their livings to heath; nor that all the unattached government of the pean artists who had their livings to ever.

The but the big Con- Mrs. Christopher R. P. Rodgers, a phone husband is a Lieutenmake drifted hither—but the big continental art dealers have found it increasingly necessary to establish houses here. Several imposing art galleries
here. Several imposing art galleries have been opened in New York this sellor of the Italian Embassy at Washland of lington, went to Rome some months ago

Gothic Frenen sculpture.

Demotte is installed in a building on Demotte is installed in a building on Fifty-seventh street, just east of Fifth avenue, that has been entirely remodeled to adapt it for artistic uses. As the galleries contain more ancient sculpsame sort of backgrounds for which they were originally designed, the statues coming in most cases from to increase the interest in Gothle carvand a great turning toward all that was sincers in art. So intense was the yearning to supplant genuinely honest art expression for all that was hollow and pedantic, that the primitives were accepted with a rush, and naivete and even awkwardness were pardoned for the sake of the real fire and spirit that bloomed through the old Gothic sculp-

Drift of Yewer Schools.

In America the collectors who have felt this "urge" are fewer, but there is no doubt that the collection of gothic sides at Englewood. Miss Marjorie Banks was the maid of honor and Capt.
Theodore F. Hunter. Services: THE
Stry-sixth street (Campbell's). Sunday and Siry-sixth street (Campbell's). Sunday. March 16, at 1 P. M. Interment clivate. Please omit flowers.

NARD—At her home, 112 Willoughby avenue, Brooklyn, on Saturday, March 15, 1218, Anne B. belowed: The street of the late Seth Wilks, and Brooklyn, on Saturday, March 15, 1218, Anne B. belowed: The street of the late Seth Wilks, and the latter part of the collection of gothic carvings assembled by George Gray Barnard and installed in his remarkable "closters" in the upper part of the city has done a great deal to spread the cult. Mr. Barnard holds that any single pullar in his closter contains a supreme late Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wilks and a granddaughter of the late Seth Wilks, was murried to Lieut, John Gibson Tay-

There is also a touch of prophecy in the weaving, for the feathers in the headdress of the Indians who are assisting the landing are red, white and blue, although at the time of the manufacture of the hanging the colour of the landing of the hanging the colors of the United States had not been decided upon.

$5,300 FOR ISPAHAN RUG.

GEO. VON L. MEYER IS DEAD IN BOSTON

Former Diplomat and Cabinet Officer Had Long Suffered From Tumor.

ONCE NAVAL SECRETARY

Ambassador to Russia and Italy and Postmaster-General Under Roosevelt.

Boston, March 9.-George von L Meyer, former Cabinet member and dip- him Mayer, former Caoinet members at 11:15
Iomat, died at his home here at 11:15
Harvard University in 1911, at the time o'clock to-night after an illness of sevine university conferred upor him the areal weeks as a result of a tumor on the degree of doctor of laws. Mr. Meyer's last public appearant was on February 10, when he attended a Sunday mass meeting at Tremont Temple, called to discuss plans for helping Italy and her people in distress because of the war. He was one of the principal speakers, although it was noted by his friends that he was far from well.

Long regarded as one of the foremost citisens of Massachusetts Mr. Meyer had served as American Ambassador to served as American Ambassador to Italy and to Russia and subsequently was Postmaster-General in President Roosevelt's Cabinet and Secretary of the Navy under President Taft. He was in his sixtleth year.

winter. The latest is the house of ingion, went to Rome some months ago Demotte of Paris, dealers chiefly in Gothic French sculpture.

Sketch of His Career.

George von Lengerko Meyer was born in Boston, Mass, on June 24, 1858, and entered business life soon after he was ture than anything else the rooms on the first two floors have the semblance of "caen stone," so that the carvings and rapidly added to his business con-appear as rouch as possible against the entered into national political life as a member of the Republican National Committee from Massachusetts.

President McKinley appointed Mr. Meyer Ambassador to Italy on December 14, 1900, as the successor of Gen, William F. Draper of Massachusetts, on condition.

condition, it was said at the time, that he would retire at the end of a year. President McKinley was assasinated before the agreement terminated, after having offered the mission at Rome to Col. Myron T. Herrick of Onio. Col Doubtless a thing that brought the connoisseurs to this opinion was the fact that all the newer schools of artists shared the impulse and mos. or the young painters and sculptors of Europe were renewing their ideas of art by close study of gothic carvings and medieval paintings. and Mr. Meyer, renewed the tender of the mission to Col. Herrick, but the laf-ter persisted in his refusal to become the Italian Ambassador Mr. Meyer stayed in Rome and in the latter part of 1902 complications erose over the re-

Ambassador at the time of the Russolithe the the time of the Russolithe the residence at the Kleinrichel Palace an imposing edifice in the fashioasble part of St. Petersburg, and there entertained the der. the bearts of Russian receit. This was Assyrian reliefs, two Roman female torsos, and a group of Spanish gothic carvings.

In the upper galleries rare tapestries and primitive paintings are shown. Special interest ought to attach to a Gobelin tapestry of the Louis NV. period, for the subject is the "Discovery of America." The designer has had the thoroughness to use trees and plants in the background that are characteristic of the southern islands where the first voyagers landed.

There is also a touch of the southern islands are those are two rares who had the people of Great Britain.

In the summer of 1908, while Post-wish and the people of Great Britain.

In the summer of 1908, while Post-wish and the people of Great Britain.

In the summer of 1908, while Post-wish and the people of Great Britain.

In the summer of 1908, while Post-wish and the people of Great Britain.

There is also a touch of the good feeling existing between the first torson, and a group of Spanish gothic carvings.

The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The King expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expressed a desire to have an advent exposition. The king expression of the royal apart.

He leaves a widow, a son, Paymaster John Addison Baxter Smith, Jr. of the ments on a variety of subjects. Mr. Meyer and chatted with him for the royal apart.

He leaves a widow, a son, Paymaster John Addison Baxter Smith, Jr. of the many, and two daughters, Mrs. Hamsey and the leaves a with ptomaine poisoning at his home in Washington. His condition was considered so serious that the members of his family were summoned in haste to his bedside from their summer home in

Secretary of the Navy.

Mr. Meyer got the portfolio of Secrefrom President Taft. He was a strong an amorine of amber. Mr. Khayat paid safe a man amorine of amber. Mr. Khayat paid safe a man amorine of amber. Mr. Khayat paid retirement when he left the Cabinet automatically upon the manguration of fresident Wilson for his first term on March 4, 1913. But when just after the start of the Furopean war Repremaking a grand total of $55,833.50 for sentative Augustus P. Gardenz, also of Marzechusetta, launched his campaign for military preparedness Mr. Meyer energed as one of the most militant advocates of the Gardner policies.

In speeches that were made in all parts of the country Mr. Meyer denounced the administration of Josephus Daniels, Secterary of the Navy, as incompetent and inefficient. He renewed the fight he had inefficient. He renewed the fight he had made himself not only for more battle-in married.

The mean of his nephew, Neat McMillan, at is Hawthorne place, and the funeral wife here on Sunday. The inerment will be in Mount Hebron Cometery here.

Mr. McMillan went to Greenfield in period while there was taken in the many had been a boy. He was not shipe out for battle cruisers. He charmarried.

ships but for battle cruisers. He characterized the navy as being then "worse than it was in 1898," and declared that "battleships were cheaper than battles.' To these terse statements he added vebal indictments to the effect that against a nation like Germany "treaties are of no use without a fleet."

As he did when he was a Cabingt

col. John A. Wildrick, civil war vet-eran and three times member of the New Jersey Legislature, died yesterday in the home of his cousin. Mrs. George D. Swain, in Newark, in his eightieth year As he did when he was a Cabinet fleer, Mr. Meyer denounced men's of this country's navy yards as useless, and pleaded for two naval bases such on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. In the pre-convention campaign of 1818 Mr. Meyer fought earnessity for the nanimation of Theodore Roosevelt by the Rejublicans, and with William Leab. Jr. formed the Republican Roosevelt.eague. After the nomination had gong to Mr. Hughes, however, Mr. Meyer sepported him. Mr. Wildrick was a brother-in-law of Carl Lents, a Republican leader of Newark. He was born at Blairstown, N. J., and for volunteers. He rose eventually to the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-eighth New Jersey Volunteers. having been captured by the Confeder-ates and compelled to serve a year in Libby prison when conditions there were

UNITED CIGAR STORE PIONEER DIES AT 71

M. W. Whelan, Oldest of Seven Brothers, Startel Them

Special Despairs to Can Se the war is now an assured fact—New Mr. Meyer's wife and three children York has become the artistic capital of the world. It is not alone that our most eminent artists resident abroad were compelled to return to their pative.

All in the Business.

He was born of Iris parents in Eng-States Navy during the fivil war.

Mr. Whelan leaves a widow. Mrs.
Catherine Whelan: three sons, Fred D.
James D., and Robrt J.; one daughter. Mrs. Frank Malone; a sister, Mrs. Hugh H. Cassidy, and four brothers, John F., David, Charles A, and George J.

George von Lengerke Meyer was born in Boston, Mass, on June 24, 1858, and brothers, of whom Michael was the eldentered business life soon after he was graduated from Harvard in 1879. He became a rubber manufacturer in Boston, and rapidly added to his business connections, becoming an officer or director in many industrial and financial concerns.

Mr. Meyer's first appearance in public life was in 1878, when he was elected life was in 1878, when he was elected if we was elected if we was elected in the Common Council of a member of the Common Council of a member of the Common Council of Legislature from 1892 until 1886, during three years of which period he was taken over by the United Clast was taken over by the United Clast and Mrs. Robert Assands. clerk and the two opened a store of their own under the firm name of Lewis & Wielan. Tifs establishment was continued until/a few years ago, when it was taken over by the United Cigar Stores It was for years a gathering place for politicians and prominent Syracuse men and became an institution MASS SAID FOR J. J. SCANNELL.

that city. opened other retail stores. As each of his six profilers became old enough he put him in charge of one. Young George J. announced in 1884 that he was rendy to begin work. He had finished his school-remonstrated.

"What's the difference?" George replied. "I'm selling tem more goods than they used to buy in your store and its all in the family."

Young George developed rapidly and eventually founded the United Grant Stores. In which Michael was also largely interested, taking an network part in their management. Sixteen years from the time the first of them was opened in Nassau street, this city, the chain of expending the Corate Corat Nossau street, this city, the chain of extablishments was doing upward of $50.

Walter D. Yager, 46 years old, of 240 West Fifty-second street died late Friday evening in the French Hospital after a brief illness. Mr. Yager was a well known theatrical advance man, having travelled ahead of "Within the Law," "Twin Beds" and "Fair and Warmer." He had been associated with Schwin to that was associated for a long time Mr. Vager was Mr. Vager was born in Springfield. Ohio, but he had lived in New York practically all of his life. He is survived by two sisters. The body was taken to the Campbell Funeral Church, where a pri-

cill be taken to Springfield, Ohio, to-day

Word was received in Montelair, N. I., yesterday of the death at Green-field, Mass., of Robert W. McMillan, for fifty years head of the out of town credit artment of Bradstreet & Co. of New

COL. JOHN A. WILDRICK.

MRS. ANNIE E. K. BIDWELL.

Chico, Cal., March 9.—Mrs. Annie E. K. Bidwell, 70. widow of Gen. John Bidwell, who in 1892 was the Prohibition party nominee for President, died at her home here to-night after a brief filmes. Mis. Bidwell, like her husband, participated actively in the cause of the NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Under the auspices of the Manhattan Council of Girl Scouts a "Rummage Sale de Luxe" will be held at 32 West Thirty-sixth street on March 14, 15 and 16, from 10 A. M. to 7 P. M., to raise funds for the Girl Scouts summer camp. Among the members of the council are Mrs. Linsee Biagden, Mrs. Arthur O. Choate, Mrs. I. Chauncey McKeever, Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mrs. Charles Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Mrs. Charles L. Riker, Mrs. Frederick Allen, Mrs. Vanderbilt Webb, Mrs. Harold I. Pratt, Mrs. George Whitney, Miss Liewellyn Parsons, Miss Caroline Choate and Henry Pearson.
Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Biederman of 21 Clifton place, Brooklyn, have an-

He was born of Irisi parents in English of 21 Clifton place, Brooklyn, nave and land on May 12, 1847, and was brought to system to be sever since, except when he served on here ever since, except when he served on a Mississippi River general to the United a Mississippi River general was a land of the land lived the engagement of their daughter. Miss Ella Frances Biederman, to David Brewer Jetmore, son of Aaron P. Jetmore of 235 West 102d street. Mr. Jetmore was graduated from Yale in 1914 and from the New York Law School in 1917. He is a grandson of the late Justice David J. Brewer of the United States Sporeme Court and is now doing confidential work for Government.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Lewengood of 160 West Flighty-seventh street have an-nounced the engagement of their daugh-ter, Miss Ruth H. Lewengood, to Arthur

Funeral Service Attended by Many Prominent Citizens. Many men prominent in New York begin work. He had finished his schooling and was just 19 years old when Michael set him up in business at a stand in the Vanderbilt Hotel in Syrsons of New York. The mass was at the Church of the Redeemer. The Rev. John L. O'Toole, the rector, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Edward that some of his best trade was drifting to the hotel stand. Quite naturally he remonstrated. public life attended in Freeport, L. L.

to Red Cross War Council.

President Appoints George B. Case Wilson has appointed George B. Case, a IMPORTANT IMPERATIVE SALES By Order of Executors and Private Owners

At The American Art Galleries Madison Square South, New York

ON FREE VIEW TOMORROW (MONDAY

TO BE SOLD TOMORROW MON.) & TUES. AFTERNOONS

AT 2:15
By direction of the United States Trust Company of New York and Mr. William F. Callaway, Executors of the Lafe
CHARLES GREGORY A LARGE COLLECTION OF Antique and Modern Watchen. Rings and other Antique Jewery; Reck Crystal Balls, Cabinet Gems, Silver, Antique Locks, Field and Opera Glasses, and Miscellneous Objects.

Of This Week, at 8:15 ETCHINGS BY MODERN MASTERS Including the Collection of C. W. LCCKWOOD OF EAU CLAIRE, WIS

TUESDAY EVENING

Cemprising—ETCHINGS by Whistler, Haden, Bajet, Buhot, Cameron, Claude Lerraine, Jacque, Lalanne, Legros, Lepers, MacLaughlan, Pennell and others; and MEZZOTINTS by S. Arlent Edwards, T. E. Appleton, Charles Bird, E. Gullard and Fred Miller.

TO BE SOLD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

of This Week at 2:45 THE LIBRARY OF OSCAR HAYWOOD, D. D.

OF NEW YORK CITY Comprising-Association Books, Manuscripts and Authors' presentation Copies, including an important Collection of Inscribed Books by James Whitcomb Riley and an Unpublished Manuscript by "Mark Twain."

> WEDNESDAY EVENING of This Week at 8:15 THE LIBRARY OF THE LATE CHARLES GREGORY

OF NEW YORK CITY including a large collection of Books on Coins, Medals and Postage Stamps; Early Printed Books and Manuscripts; Dramatic Books, Americana, etc.

ON FREE VIEW BEGINNING THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK

The Finished Pictures and Studies LEFT BY THE TALENTED AMERICAN ARTIST, THE LATE

WHICH ARE TO BE SOLD AT UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALE BY DIRECTION OF MRS. CARROLL BECKWITH, EXECUTRIX ON WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY EVENINGS.

Carroll Beckwith, N. A.

MARCH 20TH AND 21ST, AT 8:15 O'CLOCK "." Catalogue mailed on receipt of Fifts Cents.

-ALSO -

The Voron & Chiat Collection Antique Chinese Porcelains

SANG-DE-BOEUF, PEACHBLOOM AND "BLACK HAWTHORNE," TANG AND MING POTTERY, CARVED JADE AND OTHER HARD STONES, CLOISONNE ENAMELS, A NUMBER OF MING LARGE PLANT JARS AND ANTIQUE CHINESE RUGS.

TO BE SOLD BY DIRECTION OF The Supreme Court of New York. ARTHUR OFNER, Esq., PERMANENT RECEIVER MESSRS. GILBERT & WESSEL, ATTORNEYS

ON THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AFTERNOONS MARCH 21ST, 22ND AND 23RD, AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

*.*Illustrated Catalogue mailed on receipt of One Dollar

- AND The J. Dunbar Wright Collection Rare Renaissance Tapestries, Fine Old Chinese and Persian Rugs, Chinese and Persian Ceramics, Antique Rings and other Jewelry, Velvets and Embroideries, Coins and Curios and other Valuable Art Property

TO BE SOLD BY DIRECTION OF GIRAUD F. THOMSON, HOWARD K. CODLIDGE AND GEORGE M. THOMSON, ENECUTORS ON MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS MARCH 18TH, 19TH AND 20TH, AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

> ". "Catalogue mailed on receipt of Fifty Cents The Sales Will Be Conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY and his assistant. Mr. Octo Bernet, of the AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers Madison Sq. South. Entrance 6 F. 23d Street, New York.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

"ANOTHER GREAT ART EVENT" At The American Art Galleries

The Famous Stefano Bardini Collection

"A VERITABLE MUSEUM OF BEAUTIFUL TREASURES"

The majority of the important objects of the Great Bardini Collection having already crossed the Ocean in safety, we are enabled to state that the Unrestricted Public Sale will be held under our Management during the latter part of April.

Professor Bardini, who is recognized the world over as the Greatest Expert on the Ancient Art of Italy, has consigned to us what is conceded by High Authorities to be the Most Important Collection in Italy and unapproached by any heretofore exhibited or offered for sale in this country. It is composed principally of Objects of the Renaissance, that Golden Age of Italian Art.

and includes many colored Stuccos and Terra Cottas; Works of the Della Robbias; Majolicas; Marbles of both the Classical and Renaissance Periods; Bronzes; and Furniture which date from the 13th Century to Napoleonic Times, and a number of Tapestries of extraordinary Artistic Quality. The whole forming a Collection of such importance and merit as to warrant the undersigned in stating that the disposal of the same will prove to be

The Most Important Public Sale Ever Held in America

A DE LUXE ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE COMPILED BY EXPERT AUTHORITY WILL BE FURNISHED

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WILL BE FURNISHED BY

The American Art Association, Managers

Madison Square South, Entrance 6 East Twenty-third St., New York